Dear Mr. Wood:

About six weeks ago I left some old deeds with you and, I trust Mr. Newell also had a chance to find buyer for them. In any event, please let me know results as you suggested.

Sorry I cannot be there so much as I would like to.

Thanking you again

Respectfully

H. DeFalla

New York City.

Dear Mr. DeFalla:

I have shown your coins to two people and the best offer I could get is $2.00, the reason being that none of them are in really good condition and the largest one is a fake. If this is satisfactory I can send you the $2.00.

Very truly yours,

HW:JG

Curator

Dear Mr. Hood:

Received your kind letter of the 8th. The party who gave me the coins could hardly believe that so little was offered for them, until I showed them your letter. However, they will accept the two dollars.

Thanking you again
